

Social and Personal.

THE Richmond German Club held its annual meeting last night at the Westmoreland Club, at which time the following officers were elected:

President, Judge R. Carter Scott. Vice-President, Levin Joyner. Secretary and Treasurer, George Melville Reid.

Board of Governors—Colonel J. Lane Stern, Captain Joseph E. Willard, Colonel A. S. Buford, Jr., Captain W. S. P. Mayo and H. W. Ellerson.

Reception to Visitors. One of the most beautiful entertainments ever given in Richmond was an elegant luncheon tendered yesterday to the visiting women of the National Wholesale Druggists' Association in the home of Mrs. Edgar T. Taylor, 1632 Monument Avenue, who being chairman of the Richmond committee of entertainment.

Mrs. Taylor, who is noted for her charm of manner and delightful hospitality, received her guests in the parlors, which were beautifully decorated in palms and yellow and white chrysanthemums. She was most handsomely gowned in imported lavender meteor-crepe over chiffon, with garniture of iridescent pearls and gold embroidery.

Assisting Mrs. Taylor were Mrs. Claude Swanson, Miss Chapin, Miss Taylor, Misses Dora and Lida Taylor and the members of the entertainment committee—Mrs. G. G. Minor, Mrs. Conway M. Knox, Mrs. John B. Purcell, Miss Anna Purcell, Mrs. N. V. Randolph, Misses Meta and Nora Randolph, Mrs. P. J. Archer, Mrs. H. F. Miller, Mrs. W. G. Miller, Mrs. R. L. Powers, Mrs. P. H. Powers, Mrs. G. G. Valentine, Mrs. T. W. Purcell, Mrs. T. W. Chief, Miss Spencer, Mrs. C. B. Robertson, Mrs. A. J. Cavanaugh, Mrs. Hugh Taylor, Mrs. H. P. Miller.

The dining-room was artistically decorated in pink liberty roses, with a mass of the same flowers on the table, which was covered with an exquisite duchess lace cloth. Icea and bonbons carried out the color scheme. Mrs. William Talley and Mrs. Granville G. Valentine presided at the punch bowl in the hall, which was festooned with smilax and banded with pink liberty roses.

The reception in the parlors of the Jefferson Hotel last night in honor of the president and the ex-presidents was most elaborate affair. The rooms were banked with palms and ferns, and the reception was followed by a dance in the auditorium, to which a number of the younger members of society were invited. Mrs. Edgar Taylor wore an imported black lace robe over apricot satin, trimmed in jet and gold embroidery, the skirt being draped and caught with a festoon of the same. Mrs. Claude A. Swanson wore a very handsome gown of Irish point lace over white satin, and carried American Beauties.

Staid at Home Whist Club. The Staid at Home Whist Club met on Monday evening with Mrs. Bland Smith, on West Franklin Street. Five tables were engaged, and top score was made by Mrs. C. W. P. Brock and Mrs. Arthur Cannon. The club will meet next Monday with Mrs. A. F. Wilmer, 817 West Grace Street.

Important Meeting. There will be an important meeting of the Richmond Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy this morning in Lee Camp Hall at 11 o'clock. All visiting Daughters are welcome. The reports from the convention at Lexington and the booth at the State Fair will be read.

Miss Crutchfield Engaged. Mr. and Mrs. John J. Crutchfield announce the engagement of their daughter, Willie Chapman, to George Burdett Wright, of Louisiana. The marriage will take place some time in November. Miss Crutchfield is one of the most attractive members of the younger set, and her marriage is to be one of the events of the fall season.
